By initialing below, you are agreeing to have your fiber processed at Foster Creek Fiber Mill and agreeing to pay for the services that are indicated above, including any verbal and/or electronic communications. Because of the numerous factors involved with fiber processing, you are agreeing that you will hold Foster Creek Fiber Mill neither liable nor responsible for any processing that does not appear to produce satisfactory results or for any damage that may appear to have been done to your fiber. Customers who cancel orders may incur cancellation charges, fees, and labor charges. These customers will also be required to pay for any specially ordered supplies and materials and associated charges. Prices are subject to change at any time. If your order has been received and not yet processed, you will be informed of any associated price changes that affect your order prior to beginning processing. Half the anticipated price of the project is due before starting. The final payment, including any shipping/handling, is due upon receipt of the final invoice and before shipping/pick-up.
